

ADAM SCHIFF

FOR SENATE

2024 Senate Primary Voter Guide

In California's upcoming March primary, you have to vote for your choice for Senator twice. That's right, Californians will need to vote TWICE for Adam on their ballots – for BOTH the full, six-year Senate term and once again to fill the remainder of Senator Feinstein's term.

Registered voters are already receiving their ballots in the mail! California mails all registered voters a ballot to increase accessibility, you may receive it as early as February 1st. And on those ballots, Adam's name will appear twice. Both for the special election primary and the regularly scheduled primary election.

So while you make your plan to vote by March 5th, 2024, keep in mind that you will need to vote for Adam twice on the same ballot, to ensure he advances to the general election in November.

It can seem difficult to navigate so below are resources to help! If you still have questions feel free to reach out to contact@adamschiff.com and we will do our best to assist you.

Information below is provided by the CA Secretary of State
